

The Jesus Accounts: Fact or Fiction?

Before you watch the documentary

At the beginning of the documentary the interviewer asks five people for their answer to the question

'Do you think we can trust what the Bible says about Jesus?'

Their answers are:

Person 1: No.

Person 2: I've heard the Bible has been changed. That it's been altered in some way. There's some good information there. But can we trust it? I don't think we can be sure.

Person 3: I haven't really looked into it, so I can't be certain. I haven't read it. But I want to read it.

Person 4: That's a hard question.

Person 5: That's a good question.

Before you watch the documentary which of these answers is the closest to your answer to the question? Or do you have a different answer? If so, what?

All the people answering the question live in Turkey, a Muslim country.

If the interviewer came to your town or city would you expect the answers to be the same or different? Why?
